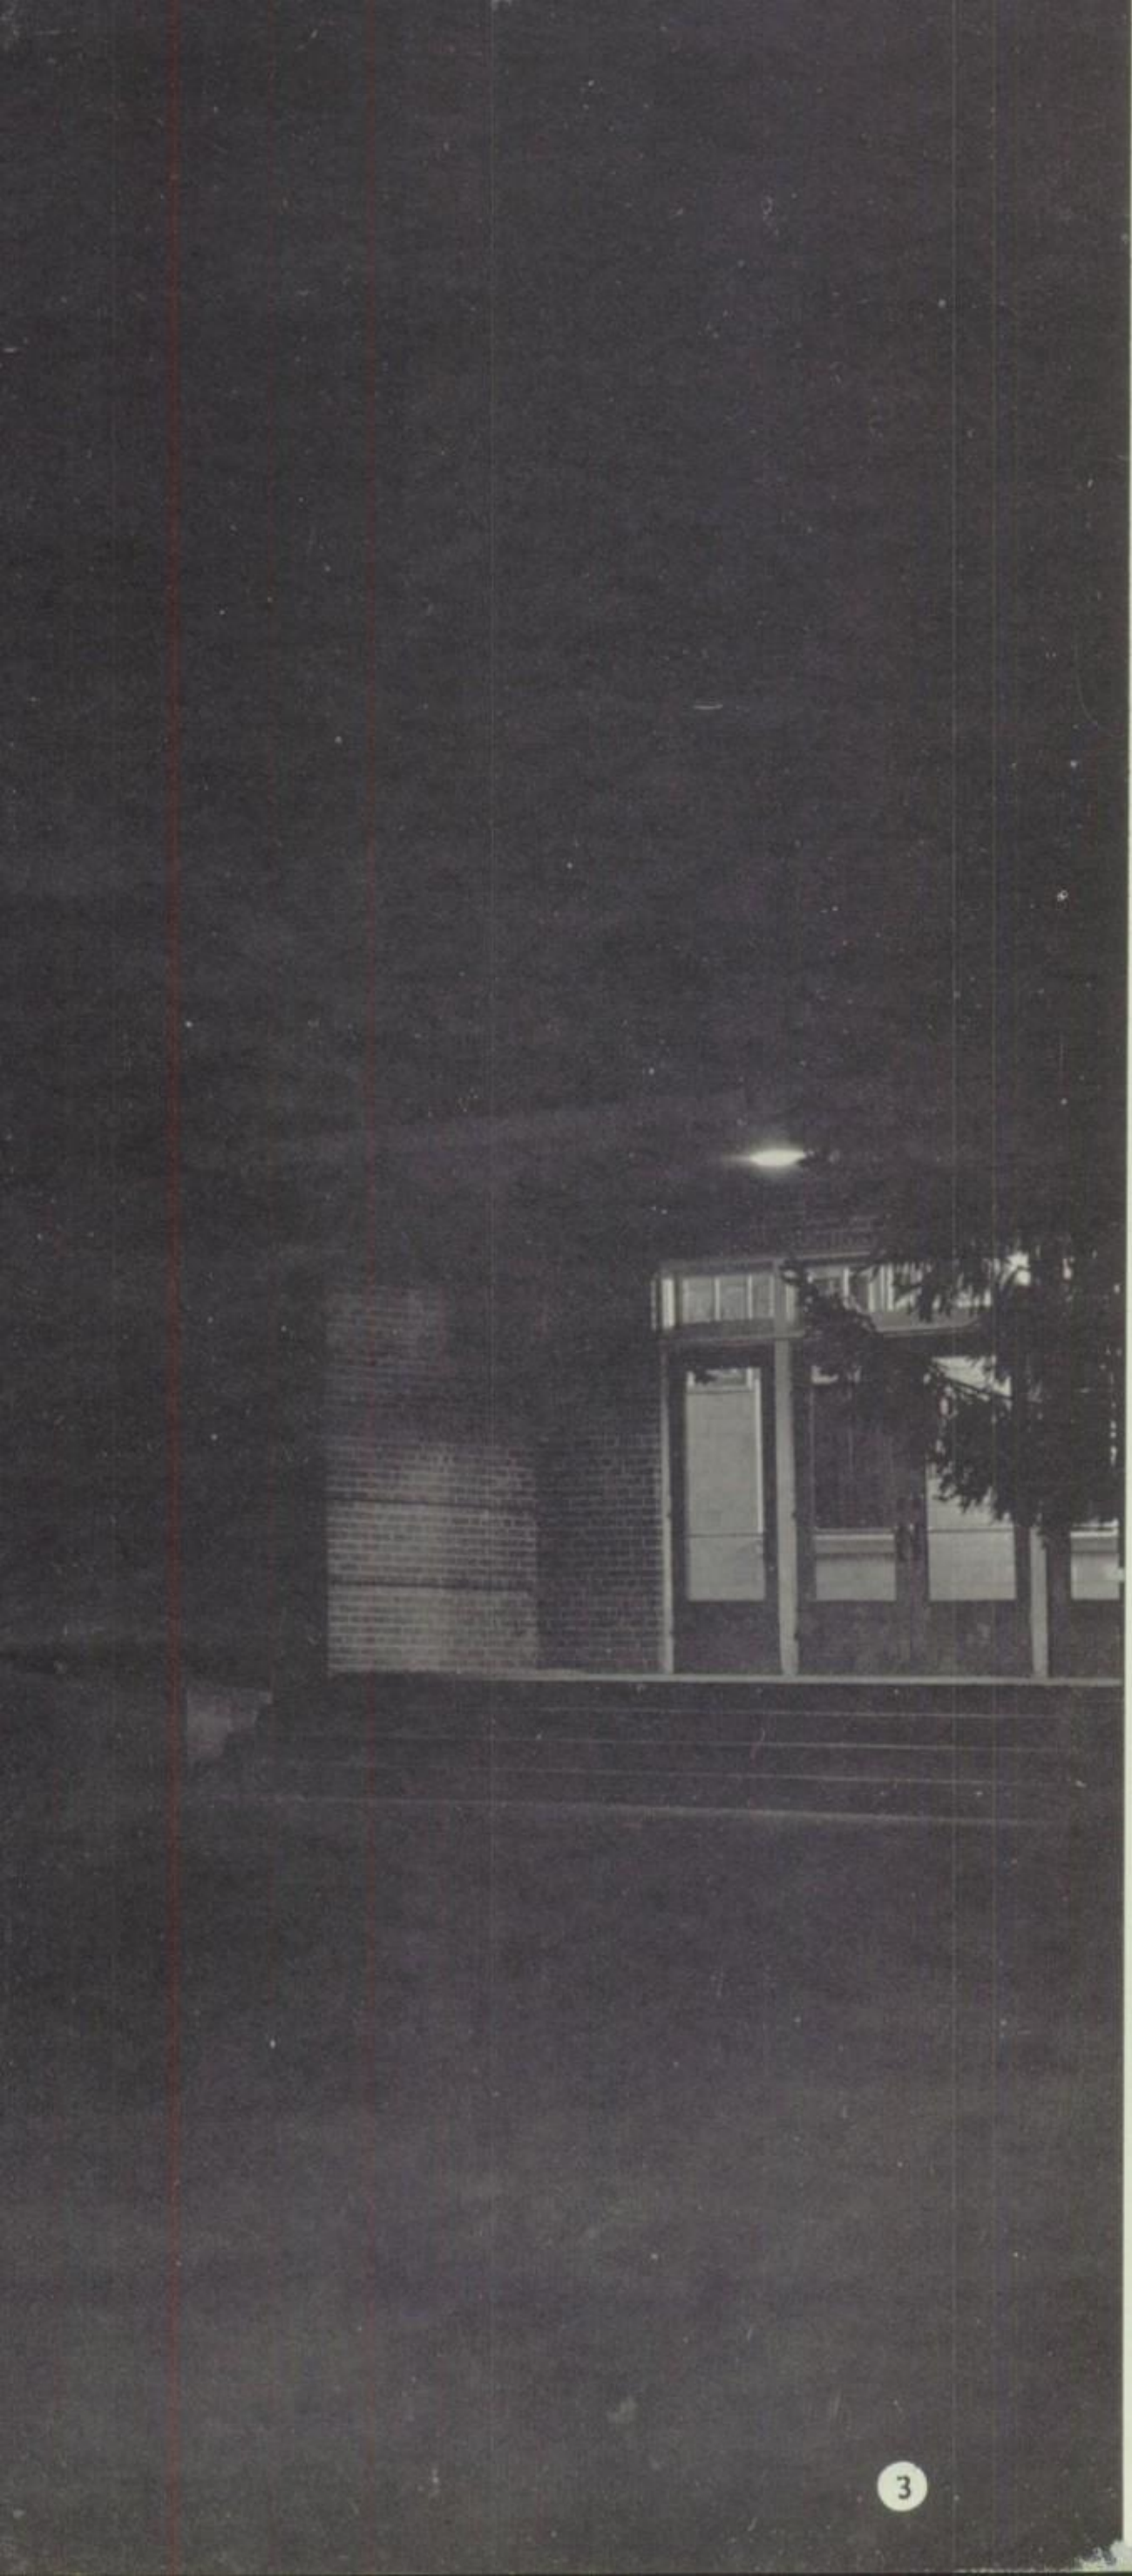
Fremont Consolidated School

Fremont, Indiana



Foreword

The traveler upon the road of life encounters many obstacles in the course of his journey. Many are inspirational and give the traveler more of an incentive or will to progress. No matter which the case may be, they are all to the traveler's wisdom and fortitude.

Of course, a basis must be formed for these experiences to be built on. This foundation is created in three places, the home, the school, and the general community in which the traveler abides; all these provide the source of this foundation. The home probably contributes the greater portion of this basis, due to the fact ideals and some fundamental habits are formed here, but the school definitely plays a prominent role in our traveler's life. If the school and the guidance it administers were absent from the environment of the traveler, these hindrances or opportunities could not be dealt with sensibly and with the best of judgment. In many instances an opportunity could present itself, and, if the individual had only limited capabilities, due to insufficient schooling, the chance could not be grasped and utilized to capacity.

The sole objective of Fremont High School is the betterment of the student's character, raising his ideals, and preparing him for his experiences on The Road Ahead.

Activities

To build a strong character and to round out our education, we need to have both an academic and extra-curricular program. Here in Fremont High School, we are privileged to have both.

Our activities have both the backing of the students and faculty. They have worked and planned carefully to try and influence more people in joining these various activities.

The many extracurricular activities help the students to prepare for bright and prosperous futures. They help many students to know themselves and their close acquaintances better. The students also learn to express their own opinions and to listen and respect the ideas of the other people.

Yes, we are privileged to possess so many fine activities, and we should all strive to better these with co-operation and constant attendance.

Sports

The students of F.H.S. are extremely proud of the Christian sportsmanship displayed by the members of all the school's competitive teams. The training, practice drills, and the actual performance itself are all based on fair play and the equality of all participants. The virtues and high standards a student must exercise in later life will be sound and based on a firm foundation, if he maintains a good standing on some team in stiff competition.

The support our teams receive from the student body is of undeterminable value in the attainment of success. Whether F.H.S. feels the sheer joy of victory, or tastes the bitterness of defeat, can depend largely on the enthusiasm shown by the team's followers. Athletics play a definite part in creation, maintenance, and extension of Christian fellowship in the home, at school, and throughout the community.

BEVERLY MILLS

KATHY BAKER

Through the never-ceasing efforts of the cheerleaders, the team was able to complete victory after victory. The girls' originality brought forth many new and inspiring cheers this year. The abounding energy, excellent sportsmanship, and hard work are well known assets of the Fremont Cheerleaders.

Track

The 1957 track team had a very successful season. Through many hours of practice, training and effort by both the players and coach the team came through with six wins and three losses. These six wins include a victory in the county meet and corner conference meet. A spread of only one or two points decided who were the corner conference champs and Fremont was very lucky to be ahead.

Bob Fisher bettered his old shot put record of 46'1" by 11" to make the new record of 47 feet even. The mile and half-mile relay records both fell this year. The new mile relay record is 3 minutes 53.6 seconds and the new half-mile relay record is 1 minute 42.2 seconds. These are the only track records that fell in the '57 track season.

During the season both players and coach gave out their own special ability and this is the reason for the successful season.

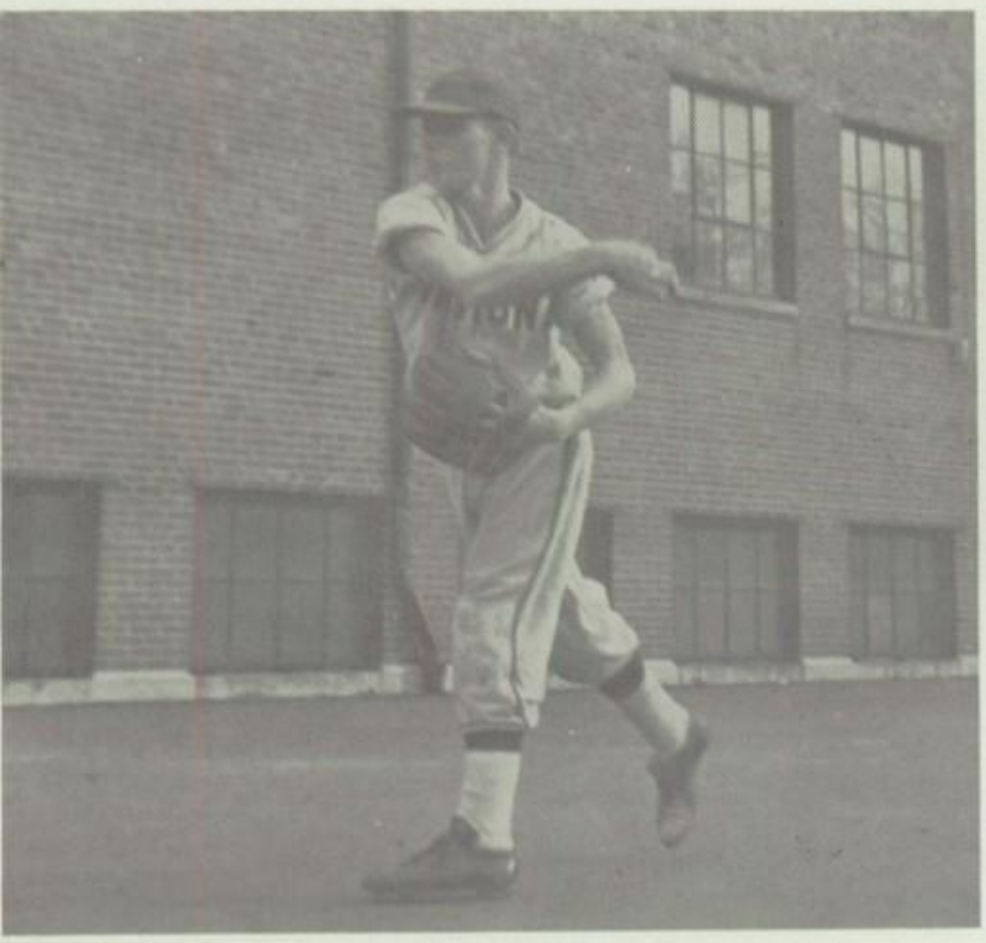
Junior High Baseball

The Fremont grade baseball team had a good record of 5 wins and 1 defeat during the 1957 season. P. Lake being the only team to put them down. The Eaglets won the county championship behind the pitching of J. C. Hassett who also hurled the rest of the games. The Eaglets had nine players whose hitting average was over 300.



J. C. Hassett, the star pitcher, is just getting ready for another game. J. C. had the highest batting average of the team.

Junior High Varsity

This year the Junior High Varsity has been under the expert guidance and training of Mr. Stafford. This is Mr. Stafford's first year of coaching here. These first team boys are made up of seventh and eighth graders, who have been working industriously with an enthusiastic spirit, co-operation, and an intense desire to win.

Junior High Reserves

The Junior High Reserves, also under Mr. Stafford's watchfulness, consist of boys from both the sixth and seventh grades. These younger boys, along with the Junior High Varsity, have also showed remarkable talents in their busy schedule and their daily practices. With continuous co-operation and support from both fans and teammates alike, these Junior High teams will soon be the High School champs of tomorrow.

Get that tip.

The team is fighting for the ball.

People

We are surrounded each day by people. These people lead individual lives but blended together they act as a group, community, and nation.

The individual has his separate life, in which he thinks and acts as he alone can do, but when forced together on life's tempestuous sea they think and act as one.

Each person has the chance to form and cultivate his standing in the school and community. Whether he makes a place in our school or community is left for him to decide. But before this decision can be made many people will have played an important part in making it without any knowledge of the circumstances.

Each individual contributes many things no matter how weak or strong he may be. Among these things are inspiration and ideals in which the younger generation will take as their passport for the future.

We must strive to greater things so when our contributions are listed with the others we will have no need to turn back, instead we will proudly take the road ahead.

Administration

The administration of a public school requires long hours of diligent work and a vast resource of patience. The administrative staff at Fremont Schools will readily confirm this. The individuals that constitute this staff provide guidance, corrective measures and advice for the entire student body. Many times during the course of the day's work, the student faces problems which can be mastered more easily with the aid of a member of the staff or some of the teacher's advice. Few of us realize the importance of the role these people play in our lives today, but in years to come the effect they have had on us will become visible. It will be through their patience, expert guidance, and understanding that we, as students, will become the outstanding citizens of tomorrow.

Mrs. Langley

The secretary to our principal, Mr. Duke, is Grace Langley. In addition to her responsibilities as secretary, Mrs. Langley supervises the cafeteria. This year she has served the high school as assistant sponsor for the Future Business Leaders of America. Whenever possible, Mrs. Langley is eager to lend a helping hand to any student, class, or organization.

Mr. Mertz

Mr. Mertz has acted as school superintendent this year. His duties are numerous. He administers the orders of the school board and serves in an advisory capacity to the board. Mr. Mertz has been an asset in making the 1957-1958 school year a success.

Custodians

Maintaining a warm school bui
ing, keeping it clean, repairing da ages, and being available for the ferent school activities are all duties of our school custodians. Th perform their work well and are to commended for it.

Cooks

The fine food, happy smile, generous portions of food, and kind words of the cooks are all appreciated deeply by the entire student body, as well as the faculty.

Many times the ladies on the cooking staff are asked to come to activities beyond their regular schedule. Their willing replies and capable work have contributed to the making of many happy, healthy students.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Bina Dunkel, Cora Mundy, Ruth Davis, Alice Bre

Bus Drivers

The bus drivers are an indispe
sable part of our school system. Th perform many duties beyond th
regular driving. The frequent acti ties away from home require ma
of the drivers to transport studer on trips at the expense of their ov time. Everyone in school has, at o time or another benefited from t
drivers' services and we all appreci
it.

Advisory Board

The Advisory Board is essential for a well-run school. This year, due to the consolidation of Fremont, there is a representative from each township.

These men work diligently for the welfare of the school.

The improvements of this year's system is largely due to the continuous effort of these men.

Mrs. Crandall has done an excellent job as school librarian during the past year. Her supervision over the reference and outside reading material was a real help to the student body.

F.H.S. has found a good friend in Mr. McDaniels. His work in speech therapy and kind words to the students will be long remembered by all who have been under his care.

Sectional Champs

Fremont went into the 1958 sectional rated under two other teams. Garrett and Auburn were both rated above the Eagles in that order.

In Fremont's first game they won over Bellfountain by a score of 81 to 58. This victory advanced the Eagles to play Garrett, whose team rated number one in the Churabusco tournament. This game proved to be the best played by the Eagles because they won by a score of 44 to 42. After this victory the big Fremont team advanced to the semi-finals and rolled over Riverdale 58 to 41. In the final game, Butler gave the Eagles a very good game, but Fremont won by the margin of 67 to 55.

After winning the sectional the Eagles were scheduled to play the South Side Archers. The big South team proved to be too much for Fremont and won 61 to 48.
